Celebrating Changes in the Life of the Church!

Church family, I have the honor and privilege to be writing to you as your new Associate Pastor! Officially, I will be worshiping with you at St. Luke's for the first time as one of your pastors on June 4th, 2023, and I cannot describe to you how excited I am to be joining this wonderful community. After I learned from Pastor Allison and Nick Sholars that my appointment was confirmed, there were two words that I used more than any others: excitement and encouragement.

Many of you may know what feelings arise when you're about to go through significant life transitions: anxiety, self-doubt, or even a little bit of sorrow. I would be lying if I said that I didn't experience at least a little bit of these feelings recently! After all, as I prepare to move to Kilgore, I am moving to a new state, serving a new church, joining a new denomination, and starting a new school and degree program—all at 24 years old! These are big, intimidating changes. Yet, I am encouraged because I serve an all-powerful and ever-present God, and I have felt Him moving in this time of transition and change. That's something that I celebrate.

Growing up in the Ozark Mountains, I've spent virtually all of my 24 years in the Springdale, Arkansas, area. For 18 of those years, my parents faithfully raised me in local congregations within the Southern Baptist Convention while I went through the local school system. You may be asking yourself, "How does a Baptist from Northwest Arkansas end up as a pastor in the Global Methodist Church in East Texas?" Since we are Methodists, we have a beautiful understanding of God's prevenient grace—God acts on our lives even when we're not aware of it. Some people might naively call this luck, but I believe our Almighty God was directing my life in a way that I didn't see at the time—and He did much better at planning than I could have! After spending several years wrestling with what I believed, I was invited to Springdale First United Methodist Church in 2017. There I encountered two great men of God who were pastoring the church at the time. They didn't mock my spiritual struggles; they didn't dismiss my doubts; they met me where I was, and they showed me a God that has suffered with us—a God that makes all things well and whole.

During a worship service on Easter morning in 2018, I felt the unmistakable presence of the Holy Spirit in my life—a warmth, confidence, and overwhelming joy that struck me to my core. In that very moment, I knew that I was wholly a child of God, called to serve His Church in some capacity for the rest of my life. And I celebrate that calling. Fast forward to March 2023, I'm making phone calls to leaders in the Global Methodist Church, exploring my call, discerning where God would lead me as I prepare to begin my seminary journey through Asbury Theological Seminary. On a phone call with Nick Sholars, he told me that there was a pastor from East Texas who was interrupting him, telling him that her church was desperately wanting to have an associate pastor. And here I am!

I'm not only celebrating the changes that are happening in my life, but I'm also very excited about some of the new, revitalized ministry opportunities coming to St. Luke's! For example, on my first Sunday, June 4th, Pastor Allison and I will be launching the Pairs and Parents small groups. In the Family Center, during the 9:30 hour between services, we will be inviting adults who have children in Sunday School classes to come together in a time of community fellowship and conversation. It's my hope that we extend this sense of loosely-structured, intimate community group model (what John Wesley called class meetings) to everyone in the Church. I would love to see our intellectual lives stimulated by Sunday School and our spiritual lives cultivated in these community groups throughout the week with people who can empathize with our season of life!

I am thrilled to also be overseeing our St. Luke's Youth program! Sometimes, churches can let their youth programs go unseen—sulky teenagers gather in the corner for a Bible lesson and then disappear, rarely to be seen by the congregation. It will take each and every one of us pouring into the lives of the young people in our church, encouraging them, and equipping them. At St. Luke's, our youth will not be a hidden, invisible group—they will be leaders in our services; they will not be "future" church members—they will be valued members of our community who can offer us rich insights into what God is doing in the lives of all ages; and our youth program will not just be another after-school club—it will be a place where young men and women can grow in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ and go forth in the power of the Holy Spirit!

Remember, church: "The human mind plans the way, but the Lord directs the steps" (Proverbs 16:9, NRSV). I'm not where I thought I would be three months ago. The Lord has led me to a much greater place where I can be used. So, too, don't be anxious about where you are, or where our church is today. The Lord will use us if we are obedient, good, and faithful servants. I'll trust in the Lord, always. I hope you do the same.

Daniel Hicks
Associate Pastor

PARENTS NIGHT OUT

Friday, June 2 | 6:00pm-9:00pm

After weather issues and scheduling conflicts, Parents Night Out is back on the calendar. We can't wait to see your kids at PNO this month. The schedule includes, crafts, a movie, free play in the gym, and pizza. It's a steal at $15 per child. You can pre-register and pay online on our website, stlukesilgore.org/childrens-ministry/.

Congratulations to our Pre-K graduates. We wish them luck in Kindergarten.

Registration for the 2023-2024 school year is open. Please contact the church office for more information or to get your little one registered.

We are sad to say goodbye to our Mother's Day Out & Children's Ministry Director, Danielle Caskey.

We say "Thank you" to her for navigating through a transitional year in our Mother's Day Out & Children's Ministry. Her skills and expertise have been greatly appreciated. Even though she will be stepping away from the two areas of Mother's Day Out and Children's Ministry, we will enjoy a fruitful relationship with Danielle and Paul as they remain a part of the St. Luke's church family.

6 REASONS TO send your kid to CAMP

1 TIME TO GET AWAY

At camp kids get out of their normal routines and can get away from distractions and the chaos of life. They get to take advantage of the retreat aspect of camp. Sometimes when kids are away, they just tend to hear things in a new way. Camp allows them to just have fun with new friends and to focus on God.

DEVELOP HEALTHY CHRISTIAN RELATIONSHIPS

Campers are surrounded by some of the most caring, loving Christian people for an entire week. Their smiles and loving attitudes are sure to rub off on the children by the end of the week. The kids will have many opportunities to spend quality time with their passionate leaders and other kids. They can visit over meals, walk and talk around the beautiful mountain camp, and have meaningful late-night conversations.

LEAVE THEIR COMFORT ZONES

Sleeping in a bunk room and many other aspects of camp push kids out of their comfort zones and teach them new things about themselves and life. This brings healthy growth for kids and can lead to great ministry opportunities.

NATURE

Spending time in God's creation is another inspiring part of camp. There is nothing like being in the woods away from the sounds of the city, listening to the birds and the bugs in the trees, and breathing the fresh air. Nature helps us all better appreciate our Creator!

LEARN SPIRITUAL TRUTHS

In the week of camp, kids will learn a lot from their leaders. They are learning and forming associations with spiritual truths even when they aren't in a "teaching time." They'll learn by what leaders say, the attitudes they display, and by the way they model their own spiritual lives in front of them.

BIBLE TIME

Most importantly kids get to saturate their minds and hearts with God's word. Most young people come back from camp on a "spiritual high", because they have tasted the greatness of God and His word. Spending hours every day studying His word, hearing Bible lessons, and singing praises to God will do that to you! Since their homes are a very different and a far less spiritual environment, we pray that their relationship with God will continue to grow and thrive throughout their lives. This time away from mom and dad also allows the children to form their own identity with Christ and to develop their own faith.

3 TIPS FOR PRAYER

PRAY SIMPLY

We might think we have to pray passionate, persuasive words for God to hear us, but in reality He listens even to our shortest "SOS" prayers.

"The fewer the words, the better the prayer," said Martin Luther. Isn't that reassuring? We can talk to God in everyday language, just like we talk to a friend. We don't have to pray long. God delights in a simple word of praise, like "Lord, I love you." He treasures the anguished prayer of a mother when she calls, "Heal my child." He answers the simplest request: "Lord, give me strength for today."

MAKE PRAYER AN INTEGRAL PART OF YOUR DAY

This verse baffles me: "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances;" (1 Thess. 5:16-17) Is it really possible to pray without ceasing?

How about trying an experiment? Start and end your day with prayer. Lift up short prayers to God as often as you can throughout your day. Pray over your schedule. Ask God to help you with your to-do list. When you hear a troubling news report, lift the situation up to God. Say a prayer for your spouse or child as you give him or her a hug. Pray for the person you're talking to. A friend of mine gives thanks whenever she stops at red lights while driving. Look for prayer moments that work for your life.

PRAY EXPECTANTLY

Prayer becomes a lifeless exercise when we're not looking for answers. Jesus invites us to expect God to work. "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." (Matthew 7:7)

How much more exciting prayer becomes when we keep our eyes open to watch for God's answers. Sometimes I wonder how many answers we miss because we don't really expect God to respond.
